Introducing New Mission Staff

Thanks to all of you who have taken the time to stop and say hello and introduce yourselves to me. I appreciate your welcome. As some of you know I have been here at the Mission for about three weeks now, Getting to know the place and putting names to faces. I am grateful for the opportunity to introduce myself to you. I am Dino Salvador and I am glad to be working here.. Before coming to the Mission I was a priest with the London Diocese. I worked in the Diocese for 18 years. Late last summer I decided to make a career and life change and that process led me here. I am glad for the opportunity for change and grateful for the continued experience working with new people and new situations.

Tips From Rocco

The best way to avoid skin cancer is to protect yourself and your loved ones from the rays of the sun. It is important to take precautions during every season of the year not just in summer. The following list will help reduce your risk of developing skin cancer.

Pharmacist
Rocco D'Angelo

- Avoid exposure to the sun during the peak hours of 11a.m. to 3p.m..
- Wear protective clothing during peak times of the day.
- Clothes should have tight weaves. Cotton T-shirts are only equivalent to an SPF - 6 lotion.
- Wear a wide brim hat to protect your head.
- Avoid tanning salons. The ultraviolet light from the tanning booths can cause skin cancer and make the skin age prematurely.
- Generously apply broad spectrum sunscreen with a high SPF. Use water resistant sun screen if you are planning to swim or exercise. Use sun protection on cloudy days because UV light passes through clouds.
- Avoid sun exposure if you are taking medications that increase your sun sensitivity.
- Make sure to wear sun protection while skiing. Snow reflects the light and the intensity of the sun increases at high altitudes.
- Always get any new skin lesions checked by a physician promptly.
